ABOUT ME

Steve Pink is currently Pathway Church's Communications Director. He is a former professor of advertising, graphic design, and illustration. After miraculously being born-again at the age of 30, he has become a passionate follower of Christ and an enthusiastic fan of all things Church. He has served for twenty years in various ministries, to include the Pittsburgh Presbytery, Riverside Community Church, Pathway Church, Cornerstone Ministries, and as a missionary in Cambodia. He currently lives in Crescent, PA with his wife Christine, his daughter Takaila, and his son Nathan.

Steve has demonstrated a gift for teaching and pastoring (Ephesians 4:11), and has extensive experience in church planting, ministry development, small groups, discipleship, and spiritual growth programs. He is currently teaching in various capacities at Pathway Church.
